PRAY FOR OUR YOUTH

Today the Tifton First youth group is returning from Orlando, Florida from Universal Studios Rock the Universe event. The event began Friday where youth groups from around the country ascended onto the sunshine state for Florida’s largest Christian worship festival. Thousands of youth students “rent out” Universal Studios for a weekend of fun, fellowship, and worship.

While the students did get to ride the Incredible Hulk, eat theme park food, and create great memories, the biggest excitement came from the Christian music groups that performed. Throughout the day there were four stages with worship artists leading worship from 4:00pm-1:00am. The headliners this year were Cody Carnes, Casting Crowns, Brandon Lake, and Phil Wickham. Many of the songs they wrote are the songs we sing in the Contemporary Service.

I heard a camp speaker and good friend of mine say one time, “think of the words that you are singing. Are you going through the motions, or do you actually believe them?” When we sing them like we believe them, think of the impact that has on our worship experience. Our students have been encompassed by God’s word through worship this weekend and I am so grateful for that.

Please be in prayer for safe travels for all 39 of us to return safely.

Blessings,
Derek Harrison
