Opportunities for Service

We are always looking for volunteers. We always need people who can help in various ways around the church. From helping with Children and Youth, packing Backpack Buddies, helping with the Audio/ Visuals during the many services and events, being an acolyte on Sunday mornings... the list obviously goes on and on.

Along those lines, we are having a training for anyone 6th Grade and up who is interested in helping with audio/visuals around the church. That training will be in the balcony of the sanctuary during the Sunday School hour today. If you missed it, and are interested, please let us know, and we’ll get you up to speed.

Next Sunday, during the Sunday School hour, I will be training our 3rd-6th Graders on how to be acolytes, as part of their Sunday School hour. If you have a child or grandchild who would like to be a part of that, please try and get them here so they can attend the training. If they can’t make it, and would like to help, let Tiffany or me know and we will get them trained up as well.

If you think you are interested in helping in a specific area, talk to the staff person over that area, or to me. We will do our best to get you connected and plugged in. There is nothing like serving God in and through His Church. Find your spot and get plugged in. If we can help, let us know!

In Christ,
Chip
