Boy Scout Sunday

This morning during the 11:00 Traditional Service, we will celebrate Boy Scout Sunday. I'm proud to say that there has been a rich history of United Methodist Churches supporting Scouting for years. The first Eagle Scout from Tifton First's Troop 62 was Jordan Short, and this troop has produced a tremendous number of Eagle Scouts since then.

It has been some time since we celebrated Boy Scout Sunday in worship, but we're delighted to be doing that today. With Cub Scout Pack 62 and Troop 62, the connection between Boy Scouts and Tifton First continues. We also have supported Girl Scouts here for a number of years.

We are thankful for the relationship that we have with these organizations. We are also thankful for the volunteers who are willing to work with these young people in developing valuable leadership skills that will benefit them throughout their lives.

Please welcome the scouts and their families to worship with us today. We appreciate their helping leading us in worship today!

In Christ,
Chip

Dear Chip and Tifton FUMC Family,

May God bless you for your incredible support of our children in 2023. You have proven to be one of our most generous donors. We are so grateful for you!

Your kindness motivates us to keep moving forward in 2024. Thank you for blessing us so abundantly!

Warmly,
Alison Evans
