Thank You

Stephanie, the girls, and I would like to express our appreciation for all the support you've shown us over these last weeks, with Stephanie's mom's hospitalizations and her passing. Jan was a true servant spirit, who loved, encouraged, and served everyone. To go from encouraging news from doctors to the agony of losing her was tough. But amid our loss, we experienced the love and grace of God, through so many people like you.

Stephanie's dad decided that he was going to go on and teach Sunday School last Sunday, and of all lessons to have to teach, the lesson was on Lazarus. At Jan's service, the last hymn was "Amazing Grace," and Sunday we sang "Amazing Grace" and "I'll Fly Away" in worship.

Losing those we love hurts so much. And it seems like wherever we turn, we're hit with another reminder of our loss. But Paul wrote the Thessalonians, "Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." (1 Thess 4:13-14)

Thanks be to God that He has given us that hope, and that He surrounds us with His loving children who continue to help share His comforting presence!

In Christ,
Chip
