An Extraordinary Week

Today we celebrate what we know as the start of an extraordinary week. It began with the day that Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey, amidst shouts and cheers from the pilgrims in Jerusalem, the day we now know as “Palm Sunday.” It ended on the day with the disciples in hiding, and Jesus was in the grave. Talk about a swing of events (but that’s nothing compared to what’s coming)!

Jesus’ triumphal entry, on the very day that the Angel Gabriel had told Daniel that it would occur, ushered in Jesus’ last week in Jerusalem. It was a week that saw Jesus exalted by cheers on that Sunday, and then jeered by the crowd as He was literally “lifted up” on that Friday.

As you go through this week, I hope you will take time to pray over what Jesus accomplished for you, as He continued to set His face towards Jerusalem – towards the Cross. Please join us for our Maundy Thursday service this Thursday evening. And then join us again for an extra-special Sunrise service Easter Sunday.

In Christ,
Chip
