Ash Wednesday

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, the day that marks the beginning of the Season of Lent. Lent is a time of preparing our hearts for Easter. I’m really looking forward to Wednesday. I get to do the chapel service for the Preschool where I’ll talk about Ash Wednesday, and will administer the ashes to any of the children that want to receive them.

At lunch that day, we’ll be having our first Lenten Luncheon since 2020. If you remember, we had our first luncheon and then everything shut down that following weekend with COVID. Rev. Mark Myers from First Baptist will be leading the time at the Leroy Rogers Center. It will be a bring your own bag lunch and drink event, due to the limited participation of the other pastors. We only have three pastors/churches and one hospice organization signed up for the seven weeks, but we’re going ahead with it anyway. I hope you can join us at noon at the Leroy Rogers Center. With the Lenten Luncheons, we will not have Midweek Communion again until after Easter.

That evening, after Wednesday Night Supper, we’ll have a short Ash Wednesday service in the sanctuary at 6:00 pm, followed by choir practice. We won’t have Wednesday Night Bible Study this week, but will resume next week.

I hope you can join us for these special times.

In Christ,
Chip
