All Saints Sunday

Today we remember thirteen people from this congregation who finished their earthly race and went home to be with the Lord between October 2025 and September 2026. An important part of this service is, as we remember these who have finished their race, that we gather around the table and celebrate Holy Communion. As we remember Jesus' words as recorded in Matthew 26:26-29 - While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom."

For now, this is just something we picture in our minds, as we gather around this table and remember the words of Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

One day, we will experience it for real as we celebrate the fulfilment of Jesus' words and experience what the angel was telling John in Revelation 19:9 - Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

In Christ,
Chip
